"Sit fulsi andeam nil veri non audeam dicere."—Cicero.

THURSDA . OCTOBER 29, 1863.

THE LOAN.

The only subject worthy of conversation at present is the new loan. Every one talks of what is called the 'empresti'o.' It is well, therefore, that we should make a few remarks about this much-talked-of loan. Owing to the glowing descriptions of a certain well-known 'Tribuna' correspondent, it is popularly believed that the English capitalists are watching the arrival of each mail to know whether they will be allowed to send the Buenos Ayrean Government a few millions or not. In fact, there are many very wide-awake people here in town, who are literally convinced that the loan is already made in England, except the merchants themselves, and unless Buenos Ayres wishes a war with Great Britain, she will at once legalise in her 'Camaras' what has been already effected in Lombard-street. It would, no doubt, be a novel sight to see two great nations going to war with each other, simply because one of the belligerents wanted to lend money to the other. But stranger things than even this have come to pass, and when John Bull gets excited he is not easily put down. Who knows but that Mr. Thorntons instructions from Earl Russell for Poor Mitre are—'Receive the loan, or fight.' Of course, if our popular and esteemed Minister arrived here armed with such instructions, we should be reluctantly obliged to make the loan rather than plunge the country into a war with so great a European power, but it would be a most disastrous alternative.

Buenos Ayres, a province teeming with wealth, its frontier lands so valuable, its hides so plenty, and its camps so covered with bones—an export article of such importance—to borrow money in Europe at 6 per cent. interest, why the very idea is simply ridiculous, and not to be entertained for a moment.

Dr. Foster, who is a man intimately acquainted with everything that is going on, states that when Dn. Mariano Saavedra governed paper dollars, not Argentine citizens, he was goaded on by a lot of 'emission and liberty' fellows, who were directors in the bank, about this identical question of a loan. To put an end to the eternal disputes on this subject, he applied at once to one of the leading London bankers for the reply he got, we hear his Excellency wanted for years in his pocket, and when the 'emission and liberty' gents bro ght up the question of the loan in the bank parlour, Dn. Mariano floored them at once with his pocket companion. Unfortunately, however, coming up one day from his estancia, in Barracas, he lost this precious document. The moment this was known, and our 'absent friend's letters began to arrive, the 'emission and liberty' friends began again. What the contents of the London banker's reply was has to this hour been preserved a sort of unsolved secret by all the old directors of the bank. Forster, however threatens, that if there is any more nonsense about the loan, he will publish the contents of the London banker's reply, and thus settle the question.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The 'Sintonge,' not usual, behind her time. She was due yesterday morning, but up to five o'clock on Tuesday evening had not made her appearance in Montevideo. We hope she will be in to-day.

The robberies in town are greatly on the increase, and very serious complaints are made about the 'serenos,' who are the most useless set of night police ever known or heard of; in fact, merchants and shopkeepers now find it necessary to put night porters to watch their premises. If we are to believe report, the serenos are at the bottom of half the robberies committed. Messrs. Ivan and Willard, who were robbed of over 20,000 dollars worth of valuable leathers, &c., have, as yet, got no clue to the thieves.

To-morrow, Mr Billinghurst will sell, by auction, some recently-imported negrette rams. We hear that these animals are some of the finest ever imported from Germany.

A new Montevidean paper has been started, called 'El Comercio.' It is published every evening. Dn. Jose M. Rosete is the editor and proprietor. We salute our new colleague, and hope its motto will be peace at all hazards.

The omnibuses in the Plaza 11 de Setiembre, are all doing a splendid business, now that the fare has been reduced to one dollar. We understand that the proprietors do not purpose to raise the price, as they find the dollar system to pay so well.

The little village of San Isidro, since the opening of the railway, is crowded to excess. Every Sunday, thousands rush out to spend the day at the river side, but find, to their great disgust that the pulperias are almost the only places where refreshments can be had at a reasonable charge. Although beautifully situated on the river, there is yet no bathing establishment, pleasure-gardens, bowling-alleys and quiet grounds, are utterly unknown. We hope some enterprising Englishman will leave London, Mr. Hanway, or Belgrave, and start a first-rate watering-place hotel.

We hear that a new weekly Spanish paper has been started, entitled 'La Primavera.' As the majority of the articles are said to be written by some of the most fascinating young ladies of Montevideo, we should like much that the editors would exchange with us.

In the 'Reforma Pacifica' of Montevideo, we read that the London, Buenos Ayres, and River Plate Bank, is determined to demand of Government a public apology for eminent, or bear that it will be granted if the capital of the bank is doubled, and Buenos Ayres is stricken out of the heading.

His Majesty's steamfrigate, the 'Forte,' has been obliged to leave Rio Janeyro, on account of the frightful mortality on board. 84 men, and 5 of her officers, it appears, have fallen victims to the small-pox.

The committee of the Moreno Church have issued the following collecting-bills for the purpose of completing the half built Church. We implore of all charitably disposed persons to send us their contributions by expediency in by Parties who enjoy rows should not fail to attend Congress, every day there is something entertaining going on yesterday Mr. Montes de Oca had the house in a ferment on the election bill. Mr. Pitt's charges against the Minister of War have elicited a lengthy investigation from all the clerks and employees in the Commissariat departments, stating their doings in no way favourable to the Senator, in his charges against Gen. Gelly & Obes.

From Arroyo Grande we have the most gratifying intelligence. One of our subscribers has got married and another has bought a square league of land, in San Antonio, besides it has rained beautifully out there: the camps look in beatiful condition: the sheep are fat, and the farmers have done well during the year.

Not one of the men passengers arrived per 'Raymond,' on Sunday evening last is to be found in town yesterday unemployed. This shows the demand for labour, and the great difference between the Irish and the Italian emigrants. Our countrymen hardly stop a day in town but make off to the camp, whilst the Italians remain all their lives in the city.

There was a crowd round the Cabildo yesterday at most three o'clock. A prisoner, tied hand and foot, was being taken from the cells by a file of soldiers. We hear that he was caught out in the camp, where he had committed a terrible murder.

On Tuesday night, at about twelve o'clock, we are told a prisoner escaped, whether out of the Cabildo or Policia we cannot say, but our informant states that the 'cash of terrenos' down to the Custom-house was something truly frightful. The fellow escaped.

The subscription list of Dr. O'Reilly is something of the most megatherium character we have ever seen. Not one half of the parties who subscribed are in the list published to-day, but we will continue it to-morrow. We only hope that we shall be one-half as successful in our Moreno Church collection as Dr. O'Reilly has been for his Church in South Africa. We are understand, leaves here shortly for the Falkland Islands, where the Bishop has requested him to give a mission. From thence, we believe, he goes to the West Coast, but we have not heard when he purposes returning to Africa with the magnificent subscriptions which he collected in this country.

Towards the Villa Mercedes it has rained copiously, but in the Magdalena and Monte it has scarcely rained a drop.

FLOKES AND FEBRO.

Montevideo Oct. 26th.

Mr. Editor,

I promised to write you the truth about so many strange rumors as are circulated in Buenos Ayres, touching Oriental affairs. Here too we have a number of 'canards' flying about, but they cannot be compared in bulk with those prevalent on your side of the water, among fashionable circles.

As nothing terms with Flores, you may confidently assure your readers there is not a word of truth in it. The Government is a constituted one, and can never enter into treaty with a rebellious enemy; for,an arrangement at present would be an abdication of authority, which no republican ruler is authorised to make.

If, however, at any time, the idea of a settlement sprung up,and that it could be effected, without interposition of the Nat. Guards bayonets, you will agree with me, that this is the last proposition occasion. when the revolt has begun to cease, and our military organization to be more wonderfully when the retreat of the rebels from the Cerro to the Brazilian frontier shews they are not able to stand before either of the Government armies.

The disbandment of General Moreno's troops has undergone various interpretations, but nothing is known by the public on the subject for discussion. The step was, however, only momentary, and several of the divisions not dismissed on furlough are now peacefully encamped together from the respective localities where they were quartered in detail. Moreno has written a note to the Minister of War, informing him of the capture of 28 fres' hooters and death of their leader, besides the slaughter of 60 others by land near Cebollati and Olimar, which evidently justifies the wisdom of his recent step, censured by so many.

Respecting Flores, we have received news (Sunday) by the Pulaski that he is besieging Salto in person, Caraballo being before Paysandu. Official reports state that he had about 2,000 armed men The garrison of Salto comprises 1000 rank and file including some infantry battalions, the rest rifles under Col. Lenguas, a veteran of Oribe's officers, so that the capture of that town by the filibusters is impossible. In Paysandu there are 700 men, and far from being hemmed in,we have reasons to suppose both these garrisons have ere now taken the offensive.

Fort Carrero to the North side of Rio Negro seems to have been with the hope of surprising either of these ports on the Uruguay. But he has been disappointed. The question now suggests itself; what will be his next attempt? If he remain North of Rio Negro, the rebellion in the Oriental districts will die out. Government will increase its forces by all the means at its command, and when a strong position shall have been established along the Rio Negro and the army concentrated, it will be difficult for Flores to avoid a combat and defeat.

The filibuster's friends regret the loss of time thrown away on the expedition against Salto and Paysandú. With the excellent troops of horses which he picked up on the Quarter, they might have suddenly come down 8. of Rio Negro, taking Medina in the rear. He would have found Moreno's army broken up, and placed Government in a critical position by preventing the re-organisation of this reserve force. It is now too late.

I have just learned that the Brasilian Government is marching two regiments of the line into Rio Grande, near the frontier. It is to be hoped Dom Pedro will fix his attention on thar province, which contains so many elements of disorder, against the Imperial rule.

CESARO.

THE ROSARIO MAILS

RUMOURED SIEGE OF S. JUAN

The 'Ferro-Carril' dates up to the 27th. Nothing positive is known about the Cinche, but private letters give bad news of the interior. On the 19th inst. General Paunero was still in Cordoba, but expected to start soon for the seat of war. A correspondent from Mendoza, states that Governor Sarmiento had written a most imploring letter for the return of Sandes' division to S. Juan, but this was refused. In Cordoba it was feared the Chacho had moved on the town of S. Juan, and couriers anxiously sought intelligence that he was besieging the place. It is, however, likely those rumours were false, as Peñaloza wishes to come to terms with the National Government, and will not resume the offensive, pending a final reply to his proposals.

Part of Rogers' Ocean Circus, after a tour through the province of Buenos Ayres, is now playing at Rosario. The police at Rosario has ordered all the bombek growing in the suburbs to be cut down. Mr. Daniel Gowland arrived from Buenos Ayres on Sunday, probably relative to the Central Argentine Railway the works of which,and of Mr. Wheelwright's mole, are,we believe, progressing rapidly. Messrs. Peter and Co., have "denounced" a number of land fronting the Paraná. The Cordoba diligence brought 9 passengers and $2,276. The Paysu brought to Buenos Ayres 12 passengers, about $ 9,000 Bolivian, and $40,000 up. An American horse-pathist arrived in Rosario, from New Orleans, named Menice.

Pio Achabal, ex-Governor of Cordoba, and whose escape we noticed in one of our last issues, came up of a wood and stopped the diligence from Catamarca, but only requested the loan of a kiss, at once assured of there being forthcoming, he quickly returned to his hiding-place. wishing the passengers ' bun viaje.' He was accompanied by his passion, a mare, almost as naked as the ex-Governor. 'Sic transit gloria mundi.'

NEWS FROM MONTEVIDEO.

'El Comercio' is the name of a well-got-up paper which appeared on the 26th: it resembles the 'Reforma' in every respect that it is an evening paper. The 'Pulaski' arrived on Sunday from the river Uruguay. The 'Villa del Salto' sailed for the 'Interiores' at Paysandú on the 23rd, and then went up to Salto, where the 'Interiores' met with the vessel previously arrived. The last named vessel came down the river on the 22nd, with the Union bust which was landed at Paysandú to reinforce the garrison, a Day' vallo was in sight of the town, and Flores encamped within 2 leagues of Salto.

Col. Civil landed at Paysandú with 80 men on the 22nd, and marching up the country drove off a picket of Brasilian and Correntine filibusters there stationed. Col. Lenguas was received with great rejoicing.

A long military left Montevideo with supplies for Medina's army,which was said to be near Durazno.

Mme. Medin sang Norma with great effect on Sunday ( the opera-house-dame Manzini has turned music-teacher. The Chimbers were to hold extraordinary sessions (Sunday) to-day; their deliberations are regarded with lively interest. D. Santiago Sayag, an old and respectable citizen, died. The Vicar is going to hold a great service on the festival of All Souls (2nd prox).

The 'Pueblo' of Guelegueychú states that Baron Mauá's visit to Urquiza was to offer him a loan of 500,000 on public lands. It is said Governor Cullen has received a similar offer, together with 2 proposals for Free Banks.

LATEST FROM PARANA.

Dr. Carriego continues his philippics in the 'Litoral' against General Mitre. His apostrophe to Cepeda is really brilliant, and he boards the National authorities with a spirit worthy of a better cause. Colonel Esquival has joined the Navarro Club of military rebels in, a famous protest against the Unitarios, wherein he styles Mitre a 'harlequin.' It is said that great preparations were made throughout Entre Rios to celebrate the anniversary of Cepeda. Contrary to expectation, Gov. Urquiza had ordered the 23rd to be kept as a public holiday. At sunrise a salute of artillery and band of music announced the happy tidings to the citizens of Parana. The same took place at noon, the Chief of Police decorating the plaza with flags. The function of playing 'sortija' (for three days) commenced, and a grand ball was given in the old Senate-house. The war-steamer '20th of May' arrived at Parana on the 21st. Carriego gives a sarcastic salute to Judge Gallerets, sent by President Mitre to inquire into the state of affairs. Heavy rains had fallen, which the Federal writer says 'were sent from Heaven to cleanse out the blood-stains made by the Unitarios at the glorious day of Cepeda, Oct. 23, 1859.

COTTON IN ENTRE RIOS.

Buenos Ayres, Oct. 24, 1863.

Messrs. D. G. and E. T. Mulhall.

DEAR SIRS—I beg to acknowledge having received from you one bag, marked "C. S. A., No. 102," containing cotton seed, for the purpose of sending the same up to the city of Parana, to be distributed there, gratis, among persons who possess land and feel inclined to make a trial in cultivating this useful plant.

As a native of this country, I feel very grateful to you for having devoted so much time and labour to awaken and foster the idea that the growth of cotton will amply compensate the time and labours which persons may devote to its cultivation; for if ever cotton becomes an article of export from this country, people will be bound to acknowledge that you have been a constant supporter of the idea—nay, I may even add, the champion and propagator of this new branch of native industry. Fortunately, your labours have not been altogether in vain, since it is a fact that several plantations have been made in the province of Corrientes and Entre Rios. In the latter we know the more than 100,000 plants shew themselves already above the ground. This is owing to a company of native gentlemen, and the plantation has been made at Villa Urquiza, a place situated some 15 miles above the Parana, upon the left bank of the magnificent river of that name, from whence the product could be shipped directly to England if necessary.

I have every reason to believe that other minor plantations have been made there also by German settlers, who are the principal occupants of the extensive lands, given to them free for the purpose of tillage. The seed which I am now sending up you may rely will be all planted next month, which, together with the other two lots I purchased from you, will produce some thousands of bales. The appearance of which will enliven much the monotony of a country that only requires to be occupied by peaceable and industrious people to produce, besides cotton, grain, wheat, tobacco, and many other things.

I notice that you calculate that some 5,000 bales of clean cotton may be expected in England next season from the River Plate. Now if you have included in this the production from Entre Rios, your calculation is quite correct; but if you only meant what Corrientes, Santa Fé, and Entre Rios are likely to produce in the first year, then I would consider your calculation somewhat over-rated. I hope, nevertheless, to see that quantity, and much more, exported by the summer of 1864-5, for at present price for that staple is maintained in the European markets.

Yours very truly,
SALUSTIANO PUENTE.

IMMIGRANTS' ASYLUM

Gentlemen,

I send you the list of subscribers to the Immigrants' Asylum. What can you expect from an establishment supported by as few? You will observe that only 18 of the small number of subscribers (40) are of this country. The quota to each is only one paper dol ar per day, and, I hope, the Government contributes a round sum per month. The parsimony of the community always crying out 'bien venidos sean,' is very remarkable.

Yours, &c.,
A SUBSCRIBER.

Biography of Dr. Kenrick, Arch. bishop of Baltimor .

Francis Patrick Kenrick, D. D. an American Catholic prelate, born in Dublin, December 2, 179 . He received a classical education in the schools of his native city, and at the age of 18, having received to enter the Church, was sent to Rome to study philosophy and divinity. He spent two years in the house of the Lazarists, and four at the College of the Propaganda, where he was ordained priest. In 1821 he came to the United States, having been chosen on the recommendation of the officers of the Propaganda, to conduct an ecclesiastical seminary just established by Bishop Dubois, at Bardstown, Ky. In the duties of the office he passed nine years, visiting also from time to time the scattered missions of the diocese. He published in 1828, under the title of "Letters of Omicron to Omega," a series of letters in reply to the Rev. Dr. Blackburn, who had attacked, under the signature of Omega, the Roman Catholic doctrine of the Eucharist. On June 6, 1830, he was consecrated at Bardstown Bishop of Arato, in partibus infidelium, and coadjutor of the Rt. Rev. Dr. Dowell, Bishop of Philadelphia, with powers of administrator. On Dr. Conwell's death, in 1842, Bishop Kenrick became his successor. It was during his episcopate that the anti-Catholic riots occurred in Philadelphia in 1844. Dr. Kenrick caused an address to be posted throughout the city urging upon the Catholics to preserve peace and charity, and made every exertion to calm the excitement of both parties. He founded the theological seminary of St. Charles Borromeo in Philadelphia, and in 1849 introduced into his diocese the Sisters of the Good Shepherd, who devote themselves to the care of Magdalen asylums. In 1851 Bishop Kenrick was transferred to the Archiepiscopal See of Baltimore, made vacant by the death of Archbishop Eccleston. The Pope named him "apostolic delegate" to preside over the plenary council of the United States, convened at Baltimore in May, 1852, and in 1859 conferred upon him and his successors the dignity of honor, which gives them precedence over all other Roman Catholic prelates in this country. Archbishop Kenrick is regarded as one of the most learned th ologians of his creed in America. In 1839-40 he published a work, named him "apostolic delegate" to preside over the plenary council of the United States, convened at Baltimore in May, 1852, and in 1859 conferred upon him and his successors the dignity of honor, which gives them precedence over all other Roman Catholic prelates in this country. Archbishop Kenrick is regarded as one of the most learned th ologians of his creed in America. In 1839-40 he published a work, named "Theologia Dogmatico-Moralis," (2 vols. 8vo., Philadelphia) which was follow ed by another on moral theology, "Theologia Moralis" (2 vols. 8vo. Rev. Ed. 1.), forming a complete course of divinity, and used as text books in various seminaries. An enlarged edition of these works is now being printed at Mechlin, Belgium. Dr. Kenrick has also published a series of letters "On the Primacy of the Holy See, and the Authority of General Councils" (1837), in reply to the Rt. Rev. John H. Hopkins, Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Vermont, (father of S. A. Hopkins,

FREE PARDON.

Gen. V. Flores, in the exercise of his powers as titular President of the Banda Oriental, has published a free pardon to all who return to their allegiance. This is rather good on the part of Mr. Flores, and shows that his actions are guided with that remarkable clemency for which he has been so proverbial.

LOCAL EVENTS.

COLDS.—Half of the city of Buenos Ayres is afflicted with several colds, owing to the rather sudden change of the weather.

ROBARIO.—A subscriber in Montevideo asks how the Cock-tails in Rosario have got on with their suit against the 'Standard;' and also why some of the members do not correspond with us, or at least publish the proceedings at each meeting.

EVARISTO CARRIEGO.—This banished Federal still keeps thundering against Mitre and his Government. Why not given him a soporiferous bit, and put a stop to these monster tirades.

'THE HOLE IN THE MOLE.'—Parties requiring copies of this popular publication can be supplied by applying to Dr. Forster, at his private residence, at any hour from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m.

COTTON YARN.—We have received from Paraguay a specimen of first-class native manufacture, which is on exhibition at this office. Earl Russell and Consuls Parish and Hutchinson will please take note.

PAUL JULLIEN.—This distinguished artiste gave another performance last night, at Colon.

ON 'CHANGE

October 28.

The paper money fluttered to-day, and at last fell one point. Imars opened at 429, and closed at 430, very firm. Cash sales, 110*.

Things looked very stiff on the Bolsa to-day. From what cause or reason we know not, it was said that some ounces were going down to Montevideo this evening; but we doubt the statement, as things are not so settled in the sister city as to invite consigments of specie.

The wool market looks at present rather flat. We learn, from the leading English broker in the North Plaza, that new clips are arriving fast, and buyers are holding back. This broker has 1500 bales of new wool on hand now, and we are told the highest price offered is 8 dollars. From a leading exporter, we are informed that at the present prices in the English and German markets, it is impossible to purchase wools at any higher price than 80 dollars This looks rather bad for our camp friends, and it is every way probable that the deposit stores will soon get all filled.

English Grammar School,

CALLE LARGA DE BARRACAS.

Dor.—Mr. Pongerard, of the London University College.

This Establishment, which from its foundation has been patronized by the principal British families of Buenos Ayres is the exact reproduction of an English School, where a sound commercial education combined with the acquisition of the French and Spanish languages is imparted to the pupils, and based upon the same system as in all first class European institutions of the kind.

An ever-watchful and constant supervision, and a strict maintenance of the due and propriety, are a sufficient guarantee that the morals and behaviour of the pupils are carefully attended to.

The different branches taught in the English Grammar School comprise the English, French, and Spanish languages, History, Geography, Arithmetic, and Book-keeping in all its parts, Writing, and Holiglas Instructions.

Extra branches, such as Latin, Mathematics, Drawing, Music and Dancing, are also taught by special masters.

The situation of the English Grammar School, in one of the most healthful Quintas of the Calle Larga of Barracas, at the very gates of the city, is one of the most healthful and picturesque of the environs of Buenos Ayres.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUÁ & C°

— No. 103 calle de Cangallo. —

BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a resource fund in case of work, sickness or old age in the end of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other rivalities

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will open on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No. 103 calle Cangallo from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. on week days; and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 m. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw a few shillings or part of the sum deposited, in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficient by known to the public by the world-renowned name, in the course of its operations which are regulated in the strictest and soundest principles and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourh-od,

Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.
